

ELECTION 2024

Perspectives, Education, Engagement

Bates is pleased to present diverse opportunities for the campus community to better understand and participate in our country's democratic process, to ask challenging questions and engage in discourse on pressing issues, and to find shared values and goals across our differences.

TUES OCT 1

Vice Presidential Debate Watch Party

With insights and commentary from

John Baughman

Professor and Chair of Politics

Steve Engel

Professor of Politics and Associate Dean of the Faculty

Stephanie Kelley-Romano

Professor and Chair of Rhetoric, Film, and Screen Studies

8:45 PM

Chase Hall Lounge

Bates

bates.edu/election-2024

ACCESSIBILITY: Bates is committed to creating inclusive and accessible events. If you would like to request a reasonable accommodation, please contact studentaffairs@bates.edu. Requests should be made 5 business days prior to the event when possible.